Family Camp at Holcomb Valley Scout Ranch

Memorial Day Weekend

May 26-29, 2006

and/or

Labor Day Weekend

September 1-4, 2006

(Mountain Man Rendezvous in the Wilderness Area)

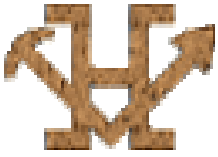

The Old Baldy Council invites all families to enjoy the relaxing atmosphere of the Holcomb Valley Scout Ranch over Memorial Day and Labor Day Weekends. Let us provide a quality family program away from the crowds on a cool mountain meadow. For an additional fee we will even do the cooking and dishes for you. Family Camp is a flexible program that allows you to participate in as much or as little as your family wants. All of our shooting ranges will be open for age appropriate instruction and recreation. We will also be opening the pool for a dip each afternoon. Horse riding will be available for an additional fee. The main feature will be a space derby competition, so buy your kit from the Scout Shop when you register and fix it up before you come. You will be able to study astronomy and learn the names of some of the stars in a location where you feel like you can reach out and touch them. Of course we'll have all of the other fun Scout Camping activities like the campfire and leather branding.

Come for one day or stay the entire weekend. Its up to you. The fee for Family Camp is $15.00 per person and includes a shirt and a patch as well as some program supplies. For $30.00 more per person we will do the cooking and wash the dishes. The first 280 people registered per weekend will get to use the camp tents and beds. If you are coming with your Pack or Troop, please turn in applications as a Unit. RV's and Trailers are welcome, but we have no hook ups and they must stay in the parking lot.
